

Australian Health Promotion Association
HEALTH PROMOTION SYMPOSIUM 2018
Old Parliament House • Canberra • 23-24 August
BETTER PRACTICE • BETTER PLACED

Rapid Presentation Program
Thursday 23 August 2018
11:30am – 13:00pm

Group One (Policy and Advocacy)

Policy, advocacy, industry influence, food & drink environments, gambling, guns, alcohol, e-cigs and media.

Presentation Order	Presentation Title	Presenter/s Name
1	Binge-watching: A place for health promotion	Sharyn Burns
2	A case study of inaction: Alcohol pregnancy warning labels	Susan Hickson Sarah Ward
3	I'd sell it if I could source it: Addressing a gap in the supply of healthier food and drink products for small food and drink outlets	Helen Skeat Emma Nikolic
4	Powerful supermarkets are gatekeepers of the Australian food system: Implications for health promotion	Claire E. Pulker
5	The importance of alliances in policy, power and politics	Stephen Bendle
6	Pool fencing legislation in WA: Where to from here	Rachel Murray
7	Building the evidence - A public health approach to preventing gambling harm	Alice Dunt
8	Vaping: Where are our opportunities for health promotion intervention?	Kahlia McClausland
9	Engaging young people on alcohol industry tactics	Kirstan Corben

Australian Health Promotion Association
HEALTH PROMOTION SYMPOSIUM 2018

Old Parliament House • Canberra • 23-24 August
BETTER PRACTICE • BETTER PLACED

Rapid Presentation Program
Thursday 23 August 2018
11:30am – 13:00pm

Group Two (System and Place Based)

Systems thinking, theory and practice, challenges of place based initiatives, social inclusion, cohesion & collaboration.

Presentation Order	Presentation Title	Presenter/s Name
1	Putting systems thinking into practice: A health promotion and research partnership	Lucy Wickham Andrew Brown
2	Hello, Fawkner!	Kathryn Kelly
3	Social inclusion in Inner East Melbourne: Working towards a systems change intervention	Sophie Allen David Towl
4	How to maintain momentum and ensure prevention skills evolve? The story of using systems to prevent the first use of drugs in rural Victoria	Tiana Felmingham
5	SEA change, working with and for the community	Kelly Edwards
6	Five ways to wellbeing – The evaluation challenge	Gabriela Martinez
7	Refugee and asylum seekers mental health project in the Geelong region	Janice Lane

Australian Health Promotion Association
HEALTH PROMOTION SYMPOSIUM 2018
Old Parliament House • Canberra • 23-24 August
BETTER PRACTICE • BETTER PLACED

Rapid Presentation Program
Thursday 23 August 2018
16:00pm – 17:30pm

Group Three (Early Childhood and Schools)

Infancy, early childhood, pre & school settings, obesity prevention, nutrition, physical activity, barriers and enablers.

Presentation Order	Presentation Title	Presenter/s Name
1	Building belonging with breastfeeding support in early childhood education & care	Emma Woolley
2	Achieving and sustaining culture change within school canteens	Kasey Bateup
3	Awareness and confidence with the Health Star Rating system among pregnant women	Linda Elbayeh
4	Face-to-face training vs online training – Which training is more engaging & sustainable?	Ana Randa Carmen Li
5	Beyond 10 Weeks – A follow up to the Go4Fun program	Alex Hyde Page Helen Dirkis
6	Tackling the challenge of program sustainability	Elizabeth Phythian
7	Riding to school: Setting you up for life	Leyla Asadi
8	Food&ME™ - Maintaining the momentum of effective nutrition education in the ACT	Leanne Elliston
9	Factors for success: Changing the food and drink culture in primary schools	Alana Devine
10	It's Your Move ACT	Emma Nikolic
11	MIND.BODY.PEDAL	Lisa Casey

Australian Health Promotion Association
HEALTH PROMOTION SYMPOSIUM 2018
Old Parliament House • Canberra • 23-24 August
BETTER PRACTICE • BETTER PLACED

Rapid Presentation Program
Thursday 23 August 2018
16:00pm – 17:30pm

Group Four (Partnerships – Collaboration & Challenges)

Partnerships, local government, collaboration, stakeholder consultation & engagement, sustainability, collective impact, challenges & lessons learned.

Presentation Order	Presentation Title	Presenter/s Name
1	Addressing the challenges of building and sustaining partnerships to improve food environments	Mairead O'Sullivan
2	Hobsons Bay 2030: a community-owned and developed integrated Municipal Public Health and Wellbeing Plan	Kylie Riley
3	Collective impact – What does it look like in practice?	Mairead O'Sullivan
4	Turn down the heat	Helen Ryan
5	Looking after our truckies	Dr Margo Sendall
6	Collaborating with industry to tackle men's health	Dr Emma George
7	Promoting toddler drowning prevention in parenting settings	Rachel Murray
8	Throwing the baby out with the bathwater: Overlooking strengths in culturally and linguistically diverse communities	Marianne Kearney
9	Leaving no woman behind in collective impact measurement	Jayde McBurnie Sophie Allen Laura Newstead
10	Health on the side: partnerships and agendas	Wendy Madsen
11	Does face-to-face communication enhance the establishment of a working partnership?	Helen Dirkis
12	VicHealth's approaches to youth engagement	Ellouise Hickleton
13	Getting the NT minimum unit price for alcohol over the line	Jenny Goodare

Australian Health Promotion Association
HEALTH PROMOTION SYMPOSIUM 2018
Old Parliament House • Canberra • 23-24 August
BETTER PRACTICE • BETTER PLACED

Rapid Presentation Program
Friday 24 August 2018
11:30am – 13:00pm

Group Five (Indigenous, CALD, Low Socioeconomic Populations)

Campaigns, Indigenous, CALD, low socioeconomic groups, healthy ageing, sexual health, health literacy, behaviour change, apps and digital inclusion.

Presentation Order	Presentation Title	Presenter's Name
1	Designing programs to meet the needs of different population groups	Nina Nichols
2	Young, deadly, syphilis free – Using social media to improve sexual health awareness among young Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders	Alison Barrett
3	Blended families – A union between health and justice to achieve equity'	Crystal Hillery Natalie Virgona
4	It's never too late – Empowering people to exercise in residential aged care	Kate Kameniar
5	Boozy illusions: Challenging misperceptions around alcohol use in uni students	Susan Hickson
6	Beyond Tokenism: How to ensure marginalised voices are part of the conversation in health?	Louise Thomas
7	Mental Health First Aid in diverse communities	Wei Jiang Suzanne Gleeson
8	App behaviour change scale: Creation of a scale to assess the potential for apps to lead to behaviour change	Dr Fiona McKay
9	Reaching migrant audiences in an Australian context	Malena Della Bona